

Massachusetts Health Quality Partners' Board of Directors Recognize CEO Barbra G. Rabson for Twenty-Five Years of Service

WHEREAS, Barbra G. Rabson has led Massachusetts Health Quality Partners (MHQP) through twenty-five years of success in improving the quality of patient experiences in Massachusetts, including several first-in-the-nation initiatives; and

WHEREAS, Barbra's stewardship of the coalition of stakeholders that comprises MHQP has sustained and grown the organization's ability to deliver on its mission; and

WHEREAS, Barbra's leadership has improved the quality of care for residents of Massachusetts and across the nation; and

WHEREAS, Barbra has driven MHQP to continually improve its own performance and to excel in meeting the needs of its stakeholders; and

WHEREAS, Barbra has fostered the careers and growth of MHQP's staff; and

WHEREAS, Barbra has worked tirelessly to bring the Massachusetts healthcare community together in order to better serve the people of Massachusetts; and

WHEREAS, Barbra is a widely respected and admired leader throughout Massachusetts healthcare, whose ongoing commitment to raising patients' voices is appreciated and celebrated by patients, providers and payers alike;

NOW, THEREFORE, be it resolved that we, the MHQP Board of Directors, do hereby proclaim our profound thanks and gratitude for Barbra's twenty-five years of service as the leader of MHQP and for everything she has done to improve the care experiences of patients in Massachusetts and beyond.

IN WITNESS, WHEREOF, I hereunto set my hand on behalf of the Board.

James Roosevelt, Jr., MHQP Board Chair
